L
13
.N2827
V. 29-31

Research Bulletin

OF THE

National Education Association

VOLUME XXIX

1951

No. 1, February—"Teaching Load in 1950"

No. 2, April—"Salaries and Salary Schedules of City-School Employees, 1950–51"

No. 3, October—"Legal Status of the School Superintendent"

No. 4, December—"Schools and the 1950 Census"

The Research Bulletin is issued by the Research Division, a section of the headquarters staff of the National Education Association. This Division was created in February 1922 for the purpose of conducting scientific studies of special interest to members of the teaching profession.

RESEARCH DIVISION

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
OF THE UNITED STATES

1201 Sixteenth Street, Northwest, Washington 6, D. C.

Research Bulletin

OF THE

National Education Association

INDEX TO VOLUME XXIX, 1951

Administration of Consolidated and Village Schools: reference, 45.

Administrators: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000, in 1950–51, 70; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 71; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends of, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.

Almack, John C.: referred to, 45.

American Households Continue Decline in Size: reference, 147.

American School Board Journal: reference, 45.

Annotated Code of Maryland, 1947 Supplement: reference, 46.

Annual Report of the Immigration and Naturalization Service for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1950: reference, 139.

Arizona Constitution: reference, 92.

Attendance officers: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000, in 1950–51, 73; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 74; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends of, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.

Bases for the Allotment of Certificated Personnel to the Schools: reference, 43.

Births by Race and by Urban and Rural Areas: reference, 140.

Brief of Superintendent's Advisory Council Studies: Interruption of Classroom Activities: reference, 46.

Cafeteria head: index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends of, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–63.

California Constitution: reference, 92.

California State Department of Education: referred to, 47.

California State Teachers Association: referred to, 47.

Census: schools and the 1950, 135–71; seventeenth (1950), referred to, 57.

Census, Schools and the 1950: See Population.

Cities: groupings for salary survey, 57; number included in salary survey, 57; standard metropolitan areas, 149–50.

Colorado Constitution: reference, 92.

Compulsory attendance laws: superintendent's responsibility for enforcement, 126.

Consumers' Price Index: referred to, 65

Cooperative Study of Secondary Schools: referred to, 45.

Cubberley, Ellwood P.: referred to, 127.

Deaths and Death Rates for Selected Causes by Age, Race, and Sex: reference, 140.

Deaths by Urban and Rural Areas and by Race: reference, 140.

Douglass, Harl R.: referred to, 45.

Dungan v. Independent School District No. 39 of Gage, Ellis County: reference, 111.

Education: adaptation of population facts to local educational needs, 170; adult education, employed persons, 14 to 24 years old, 167; attainment in, 164–65; college enrolments, 167; decline in illiteracy, 164; enrolment trends, 1890 thru 1950, 166; increased financial support, 169–70; maintaining adequate programs, 168; new tasks in, 168–70; population growth and school attendance, 165–67; school attendance, October 1950, 164; schools for more children needed, 168; special educational needs, 169.

Educational Attainment of the Civilian Population: April 1947: reference, 165.

Eelkema v. Board of Education of Duluth: reference, 111.

Employment and unemployment: employment, occupations, and income, 155–63; employment status of men, 155–56; employment status of women, 156–57; percent of labor force unemployed, in selected categories, 1950 census, 159; percent of workers employed in various industries, 162; percent of workers employed in various occupations, 162; types of work, 159–62; unemployment, 157–59; workers by source of employment, in 1950 and in 1940, 156; workers grouped by industrial division, 160; workers grouped by type of work, 1950, 161; See also: Population.

Estimated Average Length of Life in the Death-Registration States: reference, 140.

Florida Constitution: reference, 92.

Frost, Norman: referred to, 45.

Givens, Willard E.: forewords, 4, 56, 88, 136.

Guy v. Nelson: reference, 112.

Idaho Constitution: referred to, 92.

Illinois Constitution: reference, 92.

Illiteracy in the United States: October 1947: reference, 164.

Immigration: See Population.

Income of Families and Persons in the United States: 1949: reference, 163.

Indianapolis Public Schools: referred to, 43.

Infant Mortality by Race and by Urban and Rural Areas: reference, 140.

Internal Migration in the United States: April, 1948, to April, 1949: reference, 151.

Internal Migration in the United States: April, 1947, to April, 1948: reference, 151.

Internal Migration in the United States: April, 1940, to April, 1947: reference, 151.

Interruptions in Class Activities: reference, 46.

Janitors: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000, in 1950–51, 73; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 74; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.

Kansas Constitution: reference, 92.

Kansas State Teachers Association: referred to, 47.

Kuehn v. School District No. 70, Goodhue County: reference, 112.

Large and Small Classes in Secondary Schools: reference, 48.

Legal Status: of school superintendent, 87–131; publications used as basic sources, 130; scope and procedure of bulletin, 89; See also: Superintendents.

Los Angeles schools: referred to, 43.

Louisiana Constitution: reference, 92.

Manual on Certification Requirements for School Personnel in the United States: reference, 89, 103.

Mississippi Constitution: reference, 92.

Monthly Vital Statistics Bulletin: reference, 140.

National Education Association: Our Teachers: Annual Report of the Profession to the Public, reference, 47; referred to, 47; single salary schedules urged, 77–78; studies of teachers' contracts, 89.

National Education Association, American Association of School Administrators: 1952 yearbook, referred to, 88.

National Education Association and American Association of School Administrators, Educational Policies Commission: The Structure and Administration of Education in American Democracy, reference, 122.

National Education Association, Committee on Tenure and Academic Freedom: Teachers' Contracts—Principles and Practices, reference, 89, 106; Teachers' Oaths and Related State Requirements, reference, 104, 105; Teacher Tenure Manual, reference, 106.
National Education Association, Department of Classroom Teachers: Factors Making or Marring Good Teaching, reference, 48; referred to, 48.
National Education Association, Executive Secretary: 1947 report, referred to, 47.
National Education Association, National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards: referred to, 47.
National Education Association, Representative Assembly: referred to, 47.
National Education Association, Research Division: biennial surveys since 1922–23, 57; Economic Status of Teachers in 1950–51, reference, 65; "Legal Status of the Public-School Pupil," February 1948, referred to, 88; "Legal Status of the Public-School Teacher," April 1947, reference, 89; referred to, 88; "Modern Social and Educational Trends," November 1934, referred to, 137; "Population Trends and Their Educational Implications," January 1938, referred to, 137; Salaries Paid School Administrative and Supervisory Officers, 1950–51: Cities from 30,000 to 100,000 in Population, reference, 114; Salaries Paid School Administrative and Supervisory Officers, 1950–51: 106 Cities over 100,000 in Population, reference, 114; school law, reports of, 131; School Salaries, 1950–51: Cities from 2,500 to 30,000 in Population, reference, 114; School Teacher's Day in Court, referred to, 89; "Schools and the 1940 Census," November 1941, referred to, 137; Standards for Accreditation of Secondary Schools Set by Regional Accrediting Associations, reference, 48; Teacher Load Studies, reference, 46; "Teacher Looks at Personnel Administration," December 1945, reference, 23; "Teacher Looks at Teacher Load," November 1939, referred to, 5; "Teachers in the Public Schools," December 1949, reference, 9.
National Education Association, Research Division and American Association of School Administrators: Size of Class in Public School Systems . . . 1940–50, reference, 47.
National Education Association, Research Division and American Association of School Administrators, Educational Research Service: Circulars No. 1 and No. 2, 1951, referred to, 77.
National Office of Vital Statistics: referred to, 146.
National Reporter System: referred to, 89.
Nation's Schools: reference, 45.
Nevada Constitution: referred to, 92.
Newsom, N. William: referred to, 45.
North Dakota Constitution: reference, 92.
Nurses: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000, in 1950–51, 73; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 74; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.

Occupations: See Employment and unemployment.
Opinions of Attorney General (of Louisiana), 1934–1936: reference, 118.
Opinions of Attorney General of Louisiana, 1932–1934: reference, 104.
Organization and Administration of Secondary Schools: reference, 45.

Pendergrass v. Masterson: reference, 127.
Philadelphia Public Schools, Division of Research: referred to, 43.
Physicians: index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–61.
Pollack, Richard S.: referred to, 45.
Population: adult education, employed persons, 14 to 24 years old, 167; age distribution, 144, 145; birth rates, 140–42; census reports used as sources, 171; center of population, 154; changes of residence across county or state lines, between 1940 and 1947, 152; characteristics of migrant groups, 153–54; college enrolments, 167; death rates, 142; differences in percent of potential school pupils, 167; education of, 164–67; educational attainment, persons 25 years of age and over, 1947, 165; educational attainment, rise in, 164–65; families with children under 18, 148; family income, 163; fertility ratio, 143; general characteristics, 144–50; growth of, 138–43; illegal entry, 140; illiteracy, decline in, 164; immigration and emigration, 139–40; immigration since 1820, 140, 141; income, 1949, families and unrelated individuals, 163; industrial grouping, 159; infant mortality, 142–43; life expectancy, 145; marital status, 146–47; median age, 145; migration, amount of, 151; migration in 1947–48 and 1948–49, 154; migration, interregional, 151–52; migration, rural-urban, 152; mobility of, 151–54; net reproduction rate, 143; newly defined population areas, 148–50; 1947 residents who had lived in each region in April 1940, 153; organization of bulletin, 137; percent high-school enrolment was of total school enrolment, 1890 to 1950, 167; percent of increase or decrease in rural and urban population, 1940 to 1950, 148; percent under age 21, by regions, and for urban and rural groups, 1950, 167; population growth and school attendance, 165–67; presentation of data, 137; race and nativity, 145–46, 147; rate of natural increase, 143; rising educational status of the nation, 164–65; rural-urban population, 148, 149; school attendance, October 1950, 164; size of families, 147–48; standard metropolitan areas, 149–50; state economic areas, 150; total population change, 138–39; trend of, 1850 to 1950, 138; trends in school enrolments, 1890 thru 1950, 166; See also: Employment and unemployment.
Population of Standard Metropolitan Areas: April 1, 1950: reference, 150.
Population of the United States, Urban and Rural, by States, April 1, 1950: reference, 148.
Principals: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000 in 1950–51, 68; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 69; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; recommendations to, for improving teaching-load situation, 29–36; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64; trends in teaching load reported by principals, 27–28.

References: basic sources on legal status of the school superintendent, 130; census reports used as sources on schools and the 1950 census, 171; on teachers' salaries and related topics, 83; school law reports of NEA Research Division, 131.
Report of the Standards Committee: reference, 41.
Revised Rules and Regulations Implementing Chapter 247 of the Acts of 1949 of the General Assembly of Indiana: reference, 47.

Salaries: better salary policies recommended for improving teaching load, 39; distribution of teachers' salaries, cities over 30,000 in 1950–51, 66; distribution of teachers' salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 67; forms and definitions used in collecting data, 82; index relationships of median salaries, 74–76; minimum and maximum salaries, 78, 79–80; minimum and maximum salaries, classroom teachers, in single salary schedules, cities over 30,000, 78; number of increments, single salary schedules, cities over 30,000, 1950–51, 81; of classroom teachers, 58–64; of superintendents, 113–18; of city superintendents, 113–14; of county superintendents, 114–15; purchasing power and comparative value, 65–66; range and distribution in 1950–51, 66–67, 74; related NEA publications, 83; salary differentials for preparation, classroom teachers, in single salary schedules, cities over 30,000, 1950–51, 79; salary increments, 80–81; size of increments, bachelor's degree salary class, single salary schedules, cities over 30,000, 1950–51, 80; statutory provisions for city superintendents' salaries, 113; statutory provisions for county superintendents' salaries, 116–18; trends, 1930–31to1950–51, 58–66; uniformity or variety in size of increments, 81.
Salary Schedules: for classroom teachers, 77–81; minimum and maximum salaries, 78, 79–80; number of city-school systems reporting in 1950–51, 77; number of increments, 81; prevalence, 77; salary differentials for preparation, classroom teachers, in single salary schedules, cities over 30,000, 1950–51, 79; single salary schedules urged by National Education Association, 77–78; size of increments, 80; types, 77–79; types and number of city-school systems reporting each, in 1950–51, 77; types and percent of city-school systems reporting each, in 1950–51, 77; uniformity or variety in size of increments, 81.
School Review: reference, 45.
Schoolboards: relationship of superintendent to, 94–95.
Secretarial and clerical employees: distribution of salaries, 1950–51, 72; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.
Senior High School Teaching Loads: reference, 45.
Single salary schedules: adoption urged by National Education Association, 77–78; minimum and maximum salaries, classroom teachers in 1950–51, 78, 79–80; number of salary increments, classroom teachers in cities over 30,000, 81; salary differentials for preparation, 79; size of salary increments, classroom teachers in cities over 30,000, 80; uniformity or variety in size of increments, classroom teachers, cities over 30,000, 81.

South Carolina Constitution: reference, 92.
South Dakota Constitution: reference, 92.
Standards To Be Used in Determining Teacher Assignments in the Indianapolis Public High Schools: reference, 43.
State and County Educational Reorganization: reference, 122, 127.
Statistics of Higher Education, 1947–48: reference, 167.
Statistics of State School Systems, 1945–46: reference, 165.
Statistics of State School Systems, 1947–48: reference, 165.
Superintendent's Advisory Council, Cincinnati: referred to, 46.
Superintendents: authority for existence of superintendency, 91–92; authority for pupil control and discipline, 126–27; authority over buildings and sites, 125; authority over course of study, 126; authority over textbooks and supplies, 126; bond requirements for, 105; certification standards for, 96–104; citizenship requirements for, 104; duration of certificates of, 103; employment of, 106–12; evaluation of findings on legal status of, 128–29; findings on legal status of, 128; fiscal powers and duties of, 124; general legal status, 91–95; health requirements for, 104; improving certification standards for, 103; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; jurisdiction of, according to school organization, 92–94; miscellaneous duties of, 127; over-all view of superintendency, 89–90; powers and duties, 119–27; qualifications of eligibility, 96–105; reciprocity in certification of, 103; records kept by, 125, relationship of, to board of education, 94–95; removal of, 112; renewal requirements of superintendents' certificates, 103; reports required of, 124–25; residence requirements for, 105; responsibility for educational employees, 122–24; responsibility for educational policies, 121–22; responsibility for enforcement of attendance laws, 126; salaries, 113–18; salaries of city superintendents, 113–14; salaries of county superintendents, 114–15; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64; selection of, 106–107; statutory provisions for city superintendents' salaries, 113; statutory provisions for county superintendents' salaries, 116–18; statutory provisions relating to powers and duties of, 120; tenure of, 107–12; trends in teaching load reported by superintendents, 27–28; vacancies, methods of filling, 112.
Supervisory officers: distribution of salaries, cities over 30,000, in 1950–51, 70; distribution of salaries, cities under 30,000, in 1950–51, 71; index relationships of median salaries, cities over 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 75; index relationships of median salaries, cities under 30,000, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 76; salary trends, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 59–64.

Teacher Load and Class Size in California Senior High Schools: reference, 41.
Teacher Load in Kansas: reference, 47.
Teachers' salaries: See Salaries.
Teaching load: additional personnel recommended, 29–31; attacking the problem, 48; better salary policies recommended, 39; comments on teaching load, 39–40; conditions tending to lighten teaching load, 26; conditions tending to make teaching load heavier, 27; cooperative studies of, local school systems, 46; distribution of replies, degree of strain reported, 7, 8; distribution of replies, enjoyment of teaching assignment, 7–8; distribution of replies, estimate of teaching load, 6–7; distribution of replies, professional preparation, 9–10; distribution of replies, sex and marital status, 9; distribution of replies, teaching experience, 9, 10; distribution of replies, type of teaching positions 6, 7; distribution of time, elementary-school teachers, 17; distribution of time, secondary-school teachers, 19; effect of certain conditions on teaching load, 24–27; evaluation of factors relating to teaching load, 20–28; evaluation of general factors in teaching load, 22, 23; factors related to feelings of strain, 20–22; improving administrative management recommended, 31–33; improving school plant recommended, 36; improving school schedule recommended, 33–36, 39; increased school support recommended, 38–39; lightening loads, individual school, 31; lightening loads, local school system, 43–46; lightening loads, national and regional agencies, 47–48; lightening loads, state agencies, 46–47; lightening the teaching load, next steps, 40–48; lunch periods, 12; miscellaneous duties, 16–19; number of pupil-hours, 10–11; number of pupils, 10, 11; number of replies, 5; opening problem of teaching load for study recommended, 37–38; out-of-class instructional duties, 14–15, 16; periods taught by secondary teachers, 11, 12; policies governing teaching load, 43; presence of specific conditions affecting teaching load, 22–24, 25; questionnaire, excerpts from, 49–51; recommendations by teachers for improving the teaching-load situation, 28–40; recommendations to presidents of local education associations for improving teaching-load situation, 36–39; recommendations to principals for improving teaching-load situation, 29–36; scope and method of the study, 5–6; study halls and free periods, secondary teachers, 11-12; teachers' program reports, 42, 43, 44; teaching assignments and time schedules, 10–20; time devoted to various duties, 12–14, 15; time for organizations and community work, 19–20; trends in, reported by superintendents and principals, 27–28; use of a formula for measuring teaching load, 43, 45–46; uses of the report, 6.
Trends: in birth rate, 140–42; in college enrolments, 1900 to 1950, 167; in death rate, 142; in fertility ratio, 1850 to 1950, 143; in immigration and emigration, 140, 141; in index relationships of median salaries, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 74–76; in marital status of population, 1900 to 1950, 146; in median age of population, 1850 to 1950, 145; in movement of population, 1790 to 1950, 154; in percent high-school enrolment was of total school enrolment, 1890 to 1950, 167; in rate of natural increase in population, 1915 to 1950, 143; in salaries of school employees, 1930–31 to 1950–51, 58–66; in school enrolments, 1890 thru 1950, 166; in teaching load reported by superintendents and principals, 27–28; of total population, 1850 to 1950, 138.

U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics: referred to, 65.
U. S. Bureau of the Census: referred to, 137, 147, 148, 150, 151, 163, 164, 167.
U. S. Office of Education: referred to, 48, 89, 164, 165, 166, 167.

Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas: reference, 47.
Virginia Constitution: reference, 92.
Vital Statistics of the United States, 1948: reference, 140.

Ward, William A.: referred to, 45.
West Virginia Constitution: reference, 92.
What Teachers Say About Class Size: reference, 48.

Your School District: reference, 92.